

CRUISE COMPASS

Symphony of the Seas

Monday

July 9, 2018
Palma De Mallorca, Spain

STEP INTO THE MALLORCA WAY OF LIFE.

Today's your chance to see all the sights you may have missed, or just take it easy in laidback Palma. And since most landmarks are within walking distance, you can easily do both. Start with a tour of the impressive Gothic Cathedral, if you haven't already. There's also a magnificent Moorish castle nearby that's well-worth checking out. The Palau de l'Almudaina was later converted into a residence for the Spanish monarchs and still contains relics from that era. Of course, you can always appreciate the architecture from the local perspective... lounging beneath a shady palm at the Parc de la Mar. Feeling adventurous? Try some traditional tapas like the Zarzuela de Pescado, or the Espinigada, a local delicacy topped with eel and spinach. Also great for sampling local fare is the bustling Mercat de L'Olivar.
